The Town of Batesburg-Leesville recently honored employees who continue to serve with distinction and perform above and beyond the call of duty. Each year the Town recognizes a series of employees to honor their performance and commitment to the Town. In 2016, the following individuals were acknowledged for their outstanding achievement.

Employee Honors

Employee of the Year – Martha Kirkland

Department of the Year – Batesburg-Leesville Police Department

Fire Fighter of the Year – Dylan Rice

Fire Officer of the Year – Bill Kiesling

Medical Life Saving Award – Aaron Hatfield and Dustin Crapps

Service Awards

Chief Wallace Oswald – 40 Years of Service (Police Department)

Glenn Moore – 25 Years of Service (Utilities Department)

Lawrence Long – 10 Years of Service (Utilities Department)

Henry Sims – 10 Year of Service (Police Department)

Toni Keisler – 5 Years of Service (Police Department)

Shawn Bryant – 5 Years of Service (Police Department)

The Batesburg-Leesville Police Department will select its Officer of the Year in a separate ceremony in early 2017.
